

Good Morning Everyone!

Time for an update from Texas. We have been dealing with all sorts of speedbumps on way home to Chiapas.

Many stories to tell some day when we have time for a cup of coffee with you.

The short version of the tale is that Tom and his sister Kathy are on the way to Houston as I type to pick up a '96 Tahoe for us. While they are gone, the boys and I are reloading the Luv truck with our belongings (we had unloaded the truck when we arrived, anticipating that the truck would be in the shop here getting fixed).

When they get to Austin, Tom and his brother-in-law Greg will hook up the external lights for towing the Luv.

They will then hitch up the Luv to the Tahoe and do some test driving to make sure that all is well. If we don't hit anymore speedbumps, we will be leaving tomorrow morning to drive to Brownsville.

The plan is to spend Sunday night in Brownsville and cross the border in the morning around 8 am. A Mexican (trustworthy friend of a friend) will be meeting us in Brownsville in the morning to help us get through the importation process and we will drop him off at his home in Matamorros when we clear the border.

The border crossing will take probably 4 hours. We will begin the drive home. We are not sure how many days we will take to get back to Comitan. It will take longer since we are towing a vehicle. We will notify you when we get to Comitan and get the computer connection working. We will also let you know if there is a delay again along the way. Please continue to pray for us! We are tired from the stress and need patience for the long road home. Pray for safety on the road and an uneventful pleasant trip.

Thank you all so much for your prayers and financial help, we feel so privileged to have such a great support group on our team!

Joy in the Journey,

Nancy
